

Jobs Ratecard

New Zealand Autocar magazine digital media channels offer businesses and organisations an audience uniquely focussed on all things automotive.

Our readers and visitors are serious automotive buffs with many actively employed in allied automotive trades and industries.

The majority of this audience are New Zealander's, but expats also keeping an eye on what's happening and what's on offer back home.

There isn't a better place to advertise automotive niche positions. Find the right person for that unique role from our captive audience.
